JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

DEATH OF QUEEN ELIZABETH.

BY JOHN QUILL.

Queen Elizabeth is dead. It doesn't make any difference how we got that information. This is none of our fight—this quarrel between the Associated Press and its rival. We've received the news, and that's enough. She died 288 years ago the 24th of last month. She survived until the vital spark had fled, and then she saw it was of no use resisting the inscrutable decrees of fate, and so her unfettered soul took its flight into the mysterious void, and settled down in that bourne from which no traveller returns unless he has a mission to jerk chairs around and rap on tables for the benefit of mediums and other long haired, wild eyed lunatics.

Queen Elizabeth was a virgin—a vergin' on seventy; and yet the fire gleamed as brightly as ever in her cream-colored eye, and the delicate sheen of her finely-tinted maroon nose contrasted as forcibly as in her youth with the alabaster of her brow; and the plugs in her teeth were just as valuable as when gold was at 156.

She died without ever having read the Sunday Dispatch, and without making the acquaintance of John Quill. The physicians attributed her untimely end to this in a great measure; and upon reflection it does seem somewhat rough on her. But it couldn't be helped. All the human race cannot be equally blessed. Alexander the Great met the same unhappy fate.

But, still, she had no small vice. She did not smoke or chew or belong to the society for the promotion of cruelty to animals. And when she swore, she never descended to the vulgarity of Horace Greeley—Queen Elizabeth didn't. When she used profanity she gave it with a finish, an elegance, a delicate airy grace, and infused into it a certain luxurious abandon, and rounded it on carefully at the corners, and dressed it up with well selected poetical adjectives, so that it sounded like a strain from some sweet singer—like some sweet singer straining herself, in fact. And she had red hair.

Her chignon was burglar proof. And often in the dim twilight of evening, when the sun had sunk to rest, when the western sky was filled with tender radiance and lambent light, and the bulbul wooed the rose in the back yard, she would sit down and play a few notes upon her harpsichord, or write a Latin hymn or an essay on the Harrison boiler. She was supposed to be the author of "Rock me to Sleep, Mother," and "Beautiful Snow," and "Five o'Clock in the Morning." But nevertheless she was a very estimable woman, and with all her faults we love her still—better, indeed, still than if she was fooling around.

Queen Elizabeth was not proud. She always insisted upon cleaning her own teeth, even if she was a queen; and she always did it once a week, every Sunday morning, with her own tooth brush. What a lesson does this teach to those who are vain and haughty and belong to the bon ton! She never forgot that she was mere perishable dust, and that the sheep and the silk worm wore her fine clothes long before she got them. She read every Sunday-School book that taught these facts; and she once trod on Sir Walter Raleigh's cloak to remind him of them, because he was so set up with his fancy cassimeres. She said upon her death-bed that Lydia Thompson need not learn this lesson, because it had no moral for those who browsed around in nature's simple garb.

Queen Elizabeth was not sorry to die. She foresaw that George Francis Train was coming to England, and she said to her physicians that she would prefer the enduring peace of the cold and silent grave to three weeks of George and the Alabama claims controversy and the Schleswig-Holstein question all at the same time.

Her last words were, "Kill Horace Greeley before he has a chance to write "What I Know About Farming." There was not a dry eye in that second story front room. Everybody was thinking how impossible it was to carry out her dying request and to escape so much misery.

But she has gone now; she has left us; we shall see her no more. Perhaps it is for the best. She was a vigorous woman; and if she had lived she might have come to America, and lived in Philadelphia, and we might have given her offence, and she might have pranced around here and flogged us like the very nation. For she was a woman who followed closely in all the prevailing fashions. And so we are glad she is dead, and has four tons of marble planted on her grave to hold her down. Rest in peace, old girl! Rest in peace!

CONGLOMERATE INCONGRUITY.—A "conglomerate incongruity" is the happy description given by Hon. S. S. Cox, of the northern reconstruction law to enforce the Fifteenth amendment. Here is an enumeration of the beauties of the law which served Mr. Cox the purpose of as many texts:

1. It is so full of penal clauses as to be ridiculous and ineffectual.
2. It is so full of spite as to be promotive of litigations and persecutions.
3. It is so general in its terms that no information of indictment could be drawn upon its provisions, and therefore it is a fraud upon the public and the accused.
4. It destroys jury trial.
5. It is so partisan that it discriminates in favor of the black against the white.
6. It is so unmindful of the Constitution that it compels State officers to enforce Federal laws.
7. It is so vengeful that it would fill jails and accumulate fines beyond the capacity of masonry to immure the prisoners or the people to pay the sums.
8. It creates a class of paid Government counsel, furnishes fees for them from the pockets of our constituents, and thus increases taxes, while it fills the nation with a horde of detestable spies and informers.
9. It begets a conflict between state and federal authorities, and by throwing the sword into the federal balance seeks by military power to overawe and control the elections of the States, and while aggrandizing power in the federal government, destroys the form, structure and genius of the federal government.

By a close and logical exposition of the law, he made good every one of these propositions.

Rev. Gin-and Milk Smythe has opened a church on his own hook in New York. When he made his first appearance, his congregation greeted him with three cheers. All this in the godly city of New York!

The average of immigrants arriving at New York last week was 2,000 per day.

CONSERVATIVE COUNTY CONVENTION.

Delegates to the Convention of the Conservative party for Wake county, will bear in mind that next Saturday is the day for meeting in this city for the purpose of nominating candidates for the county offices, and for members of the General Assembly. Let all the township delegates, who can possibly do so, be present, that a full and fair expression of the sentiments of the people may be had.

TRICKS OF THE TRADE.

It is evident that the Governor and his organ intends to inaugurate a system of false issues in the coming campaign, by giving a party character to, and greatly distorting the outrages that have been, or may hereafter be committed in the State.

The object for this is three fold: first to concentrate the League vote upon the Radical candidates and intimidate as many whites as possible and prevent them voting at all; and in the the second place, (and this is the most important consideration,) to originate an excuse for organizing armed bands of reckless, lawless partisans, in such counties as it may be thought necessary, to prevent a free expression of the public voice at the ballot box; and thirdly, to draw off the attention of the people of the State from the extravagant, blundering, dishonest administration of public affairs for the last two or three years, and the absolute necessity of a change, in our public servants, which are the real questions at issue before the people.

We deprecate this mode of tactics on the part of our opponents, and would gladly have avoided what cannot but result in real injury to our State and people, at home and abroad; but if the issue be forced upon us, as at present it seems the purpose of the Radical leaders to do, we shall not shrink from the contest, nor cease to expose the false and injurious charges against the good people of the State, whether they assume the shape of official proclamations or groundless newspaper lies and slanders. At the same time we shall not lose sight of the real issues of the canvass, nor cease to expose the fraud, corruption and mismanagement of the present administration.

We have said that the main purpose of the Governor and his party in creating the false issues, and striving to make the false impressions that they now seem bent on doing, is to create an excuse to organize throughout the State, in such counties as they may deem it necessary, armed bands of irresponsible and desperate men, ready to do the bidding of their master, for the purpose of intimidating voters and, if necessary, to break up elections, where opposition to them is likely to be successful. "Coming events cast their shadows before," and the events we have named, as embraced in the Governor's programme, are very strongly foreshadowed by certain movements in this city, and subsequent editorials in the Standard, to which we shall not particularly allude to-day, but shall fully expose hereafter.

But while we shall fully lay bare the nefarious plan, that it is perfectly apparent is to be inaugurated solely for the advancement of party ends, the people shall at the same time be informed as to the history of the doings of this administration, in all its departments, from its coming into power to the present time. There is plenty of time and plenty of material to work on, and we shall not shrink from the task until the election shall decide the fate of the efforts we shall put forth.

AHEAD OF THE WAGON.

We understand that "Hon." James, Jeemes or Jim Harris, has, on several occasions, in his public speeches, made the statement, in substance, that "Jo. Turner says there is nothing against him except his color." Now, we don't recollect that we have ever said any such thing; and if we have, we must have been laboring under some strange hallucination, or false information, for we believe there is a good deal against James besides the color of his skin.

We have said that the nomination of Harris for Congress was one very proper to be made by the Radicals; but, that he would be a proper person to represent this district in Congress, and that he has nothing objectionable about him but his color, is quite a different affair, and we expect to make this manifest before the campaign shall be over.

James is a very proper candidate for the Radical party, but he won't do to send to Congress, as we expect to show.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION SATURDAY.

It is not our purpose to attempt a description or report of the proceedings of the Radical County Convention, held here on Saturday; it was beyond description and impossible to report. A relation of some of the incidents must serve as an index to the character of the meeting and its proceedings, and even these we are not capable of reproducing in all their grotesque ludicrousness and unpaintable comicality.

After the organization of the meeting, a Committee was appointed to recommend candidates. While this Committee was out, some of the loyal were delivered of speeches; among the rest, James Harris was delivered of a long one, which seemed to give general, but not universal satisfaction. One of his hearers, (John Jones, the Barber,) wanted to know what became of that thousand dollars that Dewerse paid him for the Congressional nomination. James, like Peter of old, "denied with an oath," that he ever got the thousand dollars at all.

"Then where did you get the money to build that fine house?" asked one in the crowd, and James didn't answer.

There was a good deal of earnest wire working in regard to the nominations.—Tim Lee was highly provoked at what appeared to him a "clique" opposition to him, but he had to swallow his mortification, until the nominations were over, and then didn't he shin 'em!—It was indeed refreshing to see how he made the fur fly. He just gave the clique, as he called them, (Richardson had got tired and was lying down over at Pope's,) to understand that, while he didn't mean anything personal, individually, he didn't ask the "whole bilin' of 'em a d——n bit of odds." That his strength lay in the county, and he'd show it to them.

But the committee reported and then began the fun in earnest. "Rotsting Dick" was nominated for the Senate, but such a perfect shower bath did the announcement prove, that a friend of his, who happened to be on the spot so opportunely that it looked like he was placed there expressly for this contingency, promptly withdrew his name. So the names of Esq. Hodge and Judge Olds were put in nomination and the Judge got it!

Then came the Commons. The names of the successful aspirants to the honor of being beaten are, Stewart Ellison, W. W. Morgan, Thomas Young, (brother-in-law to the Governor,) and S. D Franklin, one layman and three bob-tailed preachers; who have had a "call," but look, at present, very much like Jonahizing.

Allegre was put in against the Rev. Franklin at the tail end, but his shirt shirt was too short, and he found that he had sold himself for a small price and then failed of the consideration.

Tim got the nomination for Sheriff, under a pretty heavy protest; but the Convention could not swallow uncle Handy on account of his spectacles, or something else, and substituted Logan, whose surname is Harris, who wanted the place just to hold an inquest over the dead body of Democracy next August.

Logan and Pike are too sweet on the Democracy.

We are sorry for uncle Handy, for he is a clever "old colored gentleman, all of the olden time," and hasn't been properly appreciated, while Logan has been greased and greased with office and pay, untill his "eyes stick out with fatness."

But the Commissioners! Joshua was left out in the cold! and two others sent to keep him company. Calvin didn't want the place and Joshua couldn't get it; we haven't learned what was the matter with the other. Jinks sticks.

Well, the thing is over. It was perfectly apparent to outsiders, who took the pains to "watch the bobs," that it was packed throughout, and it was very cleverly done at that.

But Dick can't go to the Senate, and we shall have a large stock of ready made thunder spoil on our hands, unless he will rotate through the district and make speeches for "his friend," James Harris.

LATER.—Tom Bridgers wasn't nominated for Sheriff, as Tim would say, "at all, at all."

THE UNIVERSITY.

The farce of holding a Commencement at Chapel Hill, was enacted last week; the report of which, as given in the Standard, though even that is overwrought according to reports we have of the concern from eye and ear witnesses, shows that it was a most lamentable travesty on what is known as College Commencements.

We have received a long report of the proceedings on the grand occasion, from one interested in and connected with this once honored, but now broken down and dying State institution, but, as the publication of the report would present the University and this commencement exercises, in a light to the world not sustained by the real facts, we decline to publish it.

We regret the condition in which our State University is placed, and we are astonished at the blindness, prejudice and partisan folly that persist in keeping it as it is. It seems to us that any set of men on earth, not absolute idiots, would see that the University cannot be made anything of, under present auspices, and it is strange, that any set of men with pretensions to decency would keep themselves in positions in which they must feel they are daily winning the disgust of nearly the entire State.

Pool, Brewer, Martlin and Patrick can never revive the University, nor can John Historian Wheeler, or carpet bag Abbott spout it into the confidence of those who must sustain it, if be sustained at all. It may continue to drag out a useless existence at the expense of the State, and "go through the motions" of a University, but as to its ever performing its intended office of educating the young men of the State, its occupation is gone. There isn't a young man in the State, who has a just appreciation of the value of a Diploma, who would give a chew of Pink Harkie's Michigan fine cut tobacco for everything printed on sheepskin emanating from that source.—There are a dozen schools in the State not to speak of our denominational Colleges, from which a testimonial of scholarship would be worth twenty times as much as a N. C. University Diploma, under present auspices, to any young man going out into the world.

The attendance at the "University" during the year just closed, shows it a mere Primary, or at best a "Prep." school, and that is about the best it will ever attain in its present hands.

The following letter was received several days ago, but has been unavoidably postponed until to-day:

DURHAM, N. C., May 1870.

Josiah Turner, Jr., Esq.

DEAR SIR:—Your visit to Surry will result in great good to the agricultural interest of the county, as a great many of our people following your advice have sowed more or less clover this Spring. There seems to be an unusual interest manifested in farming operations this Spring. Large crops of corn have been planted, and extensive preparations are making for tobacco, some of our planters have already commenced planting. Our wheat crops are looking unusually well, harvest will commence about two weeks earlier than usual. Corn is scarce and selling at about $1,25 per bushel. Flour is plenty and cheap.—We are at peace with all the world and "the rest of mankind."

A Convention has been appointed to be held here on the 21st inst., to nominate Conservative candidates for the Legislature, &c., and to appoint delegates to the District Convention at Greensboro' on the 26th inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress. The Radicals are doomed in this section, we will elect our whole ticket beyond question. The people up here are sick and tired of Radical rule, and are determined to make a clean shucking of the rotten concern. We are opposed to all secret political organizations. I see in the Old North State, a description of a "Strange Animal," taken from the Charlotte Observer, (which I herewith inclose.) It must be the daddy of the Ku Klux. Would it not be a good idea for Governor Holden to send his militia up and have him captured? If it is not convenient to do this, he could first declare the county in a state of insurrection; suspend the writ of habeas corpus and apply to President Grant for troops to assist in the capture, and have him tried by a military commission. He ought not to be permitted to run at large, perhaps if they could get hold of him, it would put a stop to the Ku Klux outrages, about which there has been so much said. As you and the Governor, are on such good terms, perhaps it would be well enough to call on him and get him to attend to this matter at once, and not let him escape to Georgia as it might greatly augment their present trouble. If it ever reaches Georgia, I am certain, there will be additional guarantees required, for her good behavior. I think it has been expressively unfortunate to some of us that this old Ku Klux made his appearance at this particular time, as it has no doubt caused President Grant to withhold for the present, his long promised recommendation for general amnesty and pardon.

I am yours, &c.

H. M. W.

For the Sentinel.

HILLSBORO', June 9, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—When I wrote you last, you omitted, in the publication, much of my letter. I fear you will do so again, but I will be brief.

I only wish to express my astonishment at a paper like the Hillsboro' Recorder, professing to be Conservative and constantly assailing Conservative men. The last Recorder has a fling at a Conservative nominee for Congress, which I think out of place.

The same paper defends Ex Mayor Chahoon, of Richmond, as a persecuted man, against the charges of forgery and fraud, &c.

The editor admits he "knows nothing of the merits of the case," yet thinks Chahoon persecuted!

The admission to his columns of a statement by an anonymous correspondent, acknowledging his own dishonest conduct and assailing the integrity of others was conduct more becoming a Radical than a Conservative editor.

If I am not mistaken in what I read, the Recorder will not support our candidates. If he is not guilty, he at least suspected, of giving encouragement to certain Radicals and disorganizers.

Except Mr. Soloman Pool, Col. Guthrie and Mr. Isaac Strayhorn, there are precious few of the subscribers of the Recorder who are pleased with his editorial course.

If you will allow me I will, in another communication, show you that the Recorder meditates a change, and the sooner it takes place the better. Yours,

O.

Special Correspondence of the Wilmington Star.

FROM LUMBERTON.

LUMBERTON, Wednesday, June 10.

The Radical Row re-assembled on yesterday at 9 o'clock, with Jehu Davis still in the Chair. The report on contested delegates was disposed of, after a great deal of wrangling and abuse.

Some resolutions were introduced by Sinclair, denouncing the Ku Klux and endorsing the administrations of Grant and Holden and Pool and Abbott. This at once produced a great disturbance. The Dockery men opposed the adoption of the resolutions on the ground that Dockery was not included. Galloway moved to include all the N. C. delegation in Congress. Price moved that a committee of twelve on resolutions, one from each county, be appointed, which, after a hard fight, was carried. Adjourned for half an hour, when the committee brought in two reports. On motion of J. L. Leary the majority report was finally adopted.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported, a majority in favor of A. G. Thorston for President and the minority in favor of Jehu Davis. The question being put, Thornton was declared elected and was conducted to the Chair. Davis made a speech in which he said that his most or not living here when he was born was the cause of his defeat for Chairman.

After the organization of the Convention the battle opened with renewed vigor, the opponents of Dockery demanding that he should explain his vote on the XVth Amendment and also endorse Holden, Grant, &c; but Dockery and his friends would not do so. "Big Yaller" raved and pitched; the "Fighting Parson" cut did himself, and the Convention at once became the scene of the wildest confusion.—No one had any authority or control over the concern. Galloway swore that he would leave the Convention and that his county should defeat the nominee. He called on the delegates from Robeson and Richmond to follow New Hanover, which they at once proceeded to do, taking their hats and departing.

They left the friends of Dockery in possession, without the least opposition, and on motion of Leary an election was gone into and O. H. Dockery was nominated as the candidate of his wing of the Radical party by a vote of 20 ayes; no nays.

On motion the Convention then adjourned sine die.

Last night Dockery made a big speech in the C. H., in which he pitched into his enemies with vim. On being questioned, however, he could not explain to the satisfaction of Jehu, Long, &c., his vote on the 15th Amendment. He said it not appear on the record from some cause to him unknown, although he had voted for it through thick and thin. As to Holden Republicanism, he endorsed that fully, but did not approve of his financial policy, militia, &c.

The bolters declare that their intention is to run another candidate or to go for the Conservative ticket in the coming election. We shall wait the result and believe that the split up in the Radical camp is irreparable.

NORTH CAROLINIAN RECONSTRUCTION.

We invite the serious attention of intelligent and patriotic citizens of all shades of political opinion to the fearful picture of the working of Congressional reconstruction in the ancient commonwealth of NORTH CAROLINA which is given in a proclamation issued on Monday last by Governor HOLDEN of that State. The language of the proclamation itself might be open to comment and criticism were its subject-matter less grave and important. Governor HOLDEN speaks, not with the assumed dignity and simplicity of a real chief magistrate representing the State's, collected will for which he speaks, but in the deprecatory and almost apologetic tone of an official who feels that he does not carry with him that silent force of a free people's legitimate choice which is stronger than armies. Yet on what a subject does he utter this bated breath of denunciation and of remonstrance!

The Governor declares that in various localities of the State over which he presides outrages of the most dreadful description have been repeatedly perpetrated during the past year by bands of disguised malefactors. He describes these bands as belonging to the "Ku Klux Klan." This designation is commonly believed to have been adopted by an organization which is said to have originated at various points in the South in local opposition to the tyrannical measures of the Radical Congress, and it is quite likely that Governor Holden's proclamation may be used, if indeed it was not intended to be used, by Radicals at Washington as an excuse for attempting to inflict a new term of military despotism upon the unhappy State to which it applies.

But its true significance will not escape the people, however it may be perverted by the politicians of America. In the whole American Union before the outbreak of the civil war no State was more remarkable for the general quiet and good order of its population than North Carolina. Its inhabitants, sprung for the most part from a sturdy stock of Scotch and North Irish Presbyterians, were a God-fearing, decent, and determined people.—At Mecklenburg, in 1774, their fathers had anticipated the action by which at Philadelphia, two years later the united colonists severed the bond which bound them to Great Britain. Their history for ninety years was the history of a model republican State—law-abiding, tranquil, and contented. North Carolina went into the secession with reluctance, and she accepted the results of the struggle with decorum and with dignity.

How, then, does it happen that in such a commonwealth as this, after more than five years of peace, we hear of conspiracies, of cruel and lawless companies of brigands ranging her fields, of inoffensive persons persecuted and put to death? The answer is obvious and simple. Disregarding alike the principles of the American Constitution and the precepts of sound policy, the Radical majority in Congress chose to deal with the people of North Carolina as with a province conquered by the sword. They inflicted upon them a government not of their own choice, administered by men in whom they had no confidence, and supported by Federal bayonets in lieu of the public opinion of freemen. This government naturally has proved powerless to restrain the excesses of the bad because it has proved powerless to command the sympathies of the good in the community. The scandal of the existence of such a government has excused, in the eyes of a high-spirited and resolute people, the vagaries of those who, under the pretext of resisting its oppressions, chose to band themselves together for the gratification either of their political passions or of low and less pardonable appetites. The same cause which bred the raiders and rovers of the Scotch Highlands out of deeds like the massacre of Glencoe, and called the "White Boys" into being out of the dreadful excesses of the British conquerors in Ireland, have been at work in NORTH CAROLINA to breed the like results. The government itself of the State being without the law, it lacks the one great force before which individual outlaws quail. The same deplorable social conditions which compel the decent people of SOUTH CAROLINA to submit in silence to the outrage of seeing their State represented in Washington by a scamp already once practically expelled with dishonor from Congress, make the Executive of NORTH CAROLINA impotent to enforce public order. Those conditions must remain unchanged so long as the system endures under which they have been generated. Men do not gather grapes of thorns, nor figs of thistles. Rotten boroughs will return rotten members. A people forbidden to make their own laws will not rally to enforce the laws which are made for them.

OF NEW YORK.

P. F. PESCUD, Raleigh,
GENERAL AGENT AND MANAGER.
DR. C. E. JOHNSON, MEDICAL EXAMINER.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in many cases, even decidedly lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privileges of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in the Lecture room of the Presbyterian Church, to-morrow (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. All members of the Association are especially requested to attend, as business of importance must be transacted.

By request of the SECRETARY.

There will be a regular communication of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, F. A. M., at 8 o'clock this evening.

BASE BALL CLUB.—We are requested by some of our young friends to say, that there will be a meeting of the young men of the City at the Court House to-night at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a base-ball club. Those desiring to join will do well to be on hand.

OF DIT, that the College at Kittrell's Springs will be closed and the premises re-opened as a watering place; and that Mr. Riddick will open a Female College at Oxford in the St. John's College building.

"QUIS EXIT."—As we were passing Pranklinton, on our return from Warrenton, recently, we "struck" a few bags of that excellent smoking tobacco, "the good old Durham Spanish flavored," manufactured by Mr. E. W. Morris, of that place.—The effect of the "raise," was to cause a postponement, for a time, of a resolution we had formed to "quit smoking." The fact is, this tobacco is so pleasant that it was hard to stop while any of it remained, so we are puffing it yet. Orders for this popular smoking tobacco, directed to E. W. Morris, Franklinton, will meet with prompt attention.

"GOD AND JEFF DAVIS."—During the war, Governor Holden advised the Southern people to "put their trust in God and Jeff Davis." But the Governor has changed in part, the sources of his confidence; he don't trust in God any more, having worked himself out of all religious associations—the last being that of brother Pepper's "Union" brothers, who held divine service in the Capitol, assisted by brother Miller, of the late Confederate army; but he with nearly his whole administration, still adheres, it seems, to Jeff Davis, as he and all, or nearly all, of his Cabinet have insured their lives in the "Carolina Life Insurance Company," of Memphis, Tenn., of which Hon. Jefferson Davis is President.

We didn't get this fact from any one connected with that Company, but, nevertheless, it is from a source that we consider quite reliable; and we are glad to know that, although our Governor has withdrawn his reliance from God, he still has confidence in Jeff Davis. There are some hopes for him, yet.

FORESTVILLE PAPER MILL.—We learn that this mill which has been suspended in its operations for the past two weeks, (owing to the washing away of about one hundred feet of the mill race,) will resume operations, in full force, this week. The proprietors have now and keep constantly on hand a full stock of all grades of newspaper, bookpaper and wrapping paper.

APPROPRIATE.—We are pleased to learn that the Executive Committe of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, have requested the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, to deliver, at a meeting to be held during the ensuing Fair, an address on the life and character of the late Chief Justice Ruffin, who was for seven consecutive years the earnest and efficient President of the State Agricultural Society.

Chief Justice Ruffin was not only eminent as a lawyer and a Judge but was one of the leading and most successful agriculturalists of the State, and such a tribute to his memory, by the society, is eminently proper.

The selection of Gov. Graham, as the orator on the occasion, is peculiarly appropriate, not more so on account of his superior mental qualifications for the task, than for the fact that he possesses the facts and incidents connected with the history of Chief Justice Ruffin, to a greater extent than almost any other citizen of the State.

Mr. Graham was a law student under Judge Ruffin—practiced law under him as Circuit Judge, for many years, then as Judge and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State, and was his neighbor and intimate friend from his early manhood until the day of his lamented death.

We therefore hope, that Gov. Graham may find it convenient, as we know it will be agreeable to his feelings, to respond favorably to the unanimous desire of the Executive Committee, as well as the public at large.

A white man married a negro woman in Wilmington last Wednesday. The names of the parties are not given. A colored apostle performed the ceremony.

DEAF MUTE AND BLIND INSTITUTE.

On Thursday last, we visited the institutions for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, in this city. We went first to the colored department, where we found everything in the neatest order. The blind here are taught by Miss Mary Alston, a daughter of Oscar Alston, well known to all our citizens. The daughter has established a character in the institution and among her acquaintances worthy of her father.

We heard several good songs well sung by the blind. From the colored we went to the white department. Here we found all the pupils joyous over the prospect of going home, the session having closed. Mr. Palmer, the Superintendent, is indefatigable, and never tires in his efforts to instruct, improve and make his pupils happy, and evidences of success will present themselves to any one visiting the institution under his charge.

WARRENTON FEMALE COLLEGE.—In our advertising columns will be found the announcement for the Fall session of this excellent institution. The next term of twenty weeks opens the second year of the College under its present auspices. During the past year its success was beyond the anticipation of its friends, and its prospects for the next scholastic year are better than for the past.

There is not an advantage a parent would seek for his daughter in a Female school but may be found in this College; superior ability and experience in the President and Faculty; all the necessary instruments and appliances for musical and scientific instruction; a location not surpassed in healthfulness and social refinement, and easily accessible by Railroad, while the family management and motherly supervision of the Boarding department, by Mrs. Jones, wife of the President, give assurance of a care over the health and comfort of inmates of the school that cannot but be satisfactory to those sending their daughters there.

We speak the more confidently and freely in regard to this College, because we can do it conscientiously from a long acquaintance with Mr. Jones and most of the members of his Faculty, and a knowledge of the people of Warrenton which justifies all we have said.

SPEAKING AT CONCORD.—We learn that they had a lively time at Concord on Wednesday last. Mr. Helper is an independent candidate for the Senate, and made a "moderate" speech. Vance and Robbins both spoke very effectually, our informant states, judging from the demonstrations of satisfaction evinced by the large audience present.

Radicalism is dead in that section, or, if not dead, it is flat on its back, arms and legs elevated, eyes shut, mouth open, and as muddy as—as—Fayetteville street.—Our informant states that this is true of all that section of the State.

Wilmington has floating baths in operation.

Col. A. A. McKoy of Sampson, will deliver the commencement address at the Wilson Collegiate Seminary next month.

"Big Yaller" (Galloway) charges Foster' the Rad member of the late Legislature, from Bladen, and others, with having pocketed a certain tax bill for the sum of $5,000.

Last Tuesday the Ladie's Memorial Association of Asheville decorated the graves of Confederate soldiers buried in that town.

Census Takers are preparing to persecute the people of the West.

Work has been commenced on the Air Line R. R.

The closing exercises of the Charlotte Female Institute will take place on the 28th inst. Col. H. C. Jones delivers the annual address.

Frank Ingle, a young man residing about five miles from Charlotte, was struck by lightning and instantly killed on Thursday evening.

Col. Wm. M. Allison, of Iredell county, died at Foard's Sulphur Spring's on Wednesday.

The Base Ballists of Charlotte are visiting Yorkville S. C.

The ladies of Salisbury are going to give a series of charades and tableaux in behalf of the temperance cause.

The Rowan County Bible Society met in Salisbury on Thursday and elected officers for the ensuing year. An able and eloquent address was delivered by J. S. Henderson, Esq.

Old Ku Klux Ingram is the Radical nominee for the Senate in the Anson district.

Wilmington has a Confederate Association.

The I. O. O. F. of Wilmington had a grand excursion down the Cape Fear River on Friday last.

LONDON, June 11.—Upon the announcement of the death of Charles Dickens, the Queen hastened to send a letter of condolence to the afflicted family.

The last letter written by Mr. Dickens was dated June 8th. This contained expressions of deepest reverence for religion, and is quoted in the newspapers of to-day as repudiating any contrary impressions which might be derived from accidental expressions in his books.

The Messrs Laird have asked for a suspension of the opinion respecting the new turret ship Captain, just built.

In his will Dickens leaves "All the Year Round" to his son, with many valuable suggestions about its management.

A bill for opening the colonial ports was well received, and has already been read twice. There is still some excitement over the question of the future rule of Spain.

The Orleanists in the Cortes have been joined by those who recently adhered to Esparteo. These now all favor the Duke of Montpensier with Maria del Sereno, as the second choice if the Duke do not accept or another be chosen.

Large sums of money have been subscribed for them by the people, irrespective of sect.

The Great Family Medicine of the Age.

THIRTY YEARS

Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in curing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a PAIN KILLER its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.

THIRTY YEARS is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the PAIN KILLER is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a SURE and EFFECTIVE remedy. For sale by all Druggists.

PRICE 25 cts., 50 cts. AND $1.00 PER BOTTLE.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 9th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound: Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

The BROOKLYN LIFF enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
